Mrs. Dillard appears in many memories of my teenage years, many, many, serving up delicious dinners on the nights I would spend with Diane, leaving happily with Mr. Dillard for a fun night out, "you kids be careful", gracious and welcoming at the camp, turning a blind eye to our driving the scouts around late into the nights at the scrub, looking for deer, sort of, or three toes..... and getting onto Jimmy to clean up his room, commending Diane and Vera for not going the messy route... strong, then, melting to sweet and soft in a heartbeat. I know she will be sorely missed. I won't be able to be at the graveside, but, she will understand, as my thoughts are constant this day, and prayers constant as conversation to her and those with her now. She hears me. She graciously knows.I ask the angels and the saints to surround her as she explores and immerses herself in the joys of Heaven and light, with her beloved Jerry and all who have gone before. It'll be a wonderful reunion. God bless her and all who loved her, every one. Debbie Niesner and the Hall family

Loren Hobbs lit a candle in honor of Barbara.

I met Mrs. Dillard at my office in, I believe, 2004. I was 20 years old. There was something so familial about her. Very honest. The kind of woman who expects the same honesty and respect from others that she willingly offers. She was beautiful on the inside and the outside. Always dressed to the nine. We stayed in touch through our professional relationship throughout the next several years, until I moved out of town in 2011. She was always special to me and has a place in my heart. My sincere condolences to her family.
With love, Loren Hobbs

What wonderful memories I have of times spent with Aunt Barbara. There are stories to be told of trips to the camp, the motor home travels to California and back, and living room chats. As much as I'll miss her, the memories make me smile. With love to all my cousins who will miss this great lady so much. Judy
