Joe and I met in 2002, went to dinner with Joe and Diane, with a group from the bridge club. We quickly learned that in order for us to be able to talk, we needed to sit together. That was the start of a long great relationship together. We shared birthdays and anniversaries together. When Pam and Diane went to bridge tournaments, we got together for dinner. He is a great guy, and a very good friend, John Miller

A bright and shiny star was added to the sky with the passing of our friend Joe. Extraordinary cook, a kind and caring human being, and never heard him say an unkind word about anyone. Didn't get to see him as often as I would have liked these last few years but he touched my life--Thank you Joe--Your friend Binny
