Tim was a nice man and really was appreciated that I have opened his eyes to a new horizon which was closed on him since all he did was mostly work cuz of him being in his shell from what happened to him and the house he lived in. He liked to help others whenever he could and had his own Scrap business to help make extra money to help make ends meet where ever they were needed. I just wish I had some "CLOSURE" on him cuz me and him used to mated to each other for almost 10yrs. He will be dearly missed by all of his loving friends and family he acquired over the 36yrs he had.He Promised me that one day we would be living together up until he had a very bad health problem. I still love you Tim from the bottom of my heart. You made me the Happiest fur of my life when we were together. I always made sure to include you in my fun events especially at the Delaware bowling meets and the PA bowling meets. I just wished that I could of seen you 1 more time before this so we could of gone to a furry convention together cuz yours ended abruptly due to house catching on fire and you loosing a very good fursuit.I made a short poem called Paws in Wet Sand: As we walk holding each others paw as we walk along the shoreline of the ocean we make Paw marks in the wet said, but as we turn around I'm walking all alone along the shore creating a different set of paw marks on the shoreline of the beach holding Gods hand guiding me to a happy place in time filled with good memories that will last a lifetime. As I look back behind me to see how many paw prints I have made I can only see a pair of which is my own but we both will continue to make paw prints into the heavens above when our time meets again when we are reunited with each other and the other wolves that died before us. So I will continue to make paw prints in the wet sand along the shorelines we walked until we meet again.- Black Foot Da Wolf

He was a great friend. We got to see him just before he went down to Florida to help with his Grandma. We are so glad that we did. We had camped for 4th of July one year out at the property and had so much fun with the group. Drama happened but then when does it not. It was a blast.We miss Scrapper very much.

Tim is one of the friendliest, kindest people I have ever had the honor of meeting. He was always ready to help out others who needed, and very rarely would he ever turn anyone down. He had such a big heart, so much compassion for others. He will be sorely missed. Jamie Joyce Mishawaka, IN

I really missed Tim. Heart and soul. I want to do anything to be with him again. I really miss him. Waking up isn't getting any easier, and falling asleep is just getting harder. I love him so much. I would do ANYTHING to have the love of my life back in my arms one more time, even if just for a moment so I could tell him I love him, and kiss his cheek. Maybe hold his hand again. I wanted to spend my life with him taking care of him and making him smile. He deserved the best and I wanted to give him everything his heart desired. I take comfort in that he is no longer in any pain, and that he is in a better place. He will be missed by all he knew. He was a great man, a hard worker, a leader, a teacher, a friend, a companion, and compassionate, supportive, caring individual. I loved him very much. He made me smile, made me laugh, made me feel useful and loved. Made sure I felt safe and secure. Always lifted me up. He was the first man I ever truly loved, the first man to make me feel like I was worth something, the first person to show me any true compassion, and the first man to ever propose to me. The time we spent together was nothing but magical, and I will cherish what we had forever. He was truly special, and had the biggest, most loving heart I had ever seen. He was an amazing man, and he will never be lost from our hearts.
