Bill enjoyed a 50-year career in the Real Estate industry which included co-founding Lincoln Realty in Minnesota, creating Ivy, Home Builders of Florida with co-partners, who developed the Village Grove subdivision in Mt. Although it's been many years since the Tschida family moved to Florida; while still alive Aunt Adeline always talked with great pride about daughter Shirley and her husband Bill. It is with much sadness that we send our condolences to Shirley and family at this time. May God wrap his arms around you to get you through, R.I.P. BillMarilyn (Pearce) Tacheny and family

I count myself lucky to have known and spent time with Bill. He was a loving husband, a good father and a beloved grandfather. He enjoyed his golf and good scotch. He had a charming wit. He was always positive, a real-life Zig Zigar. I, like many, will sincerely miss him. Extending our deepest sympathies and regrets, Karl Pearson & family

Joe, Although we never had the privilege of knowing your father, we do know you and children are a reflection of their parents, and you are as good as they come, so he had to be a great man, (and Sam is following well). You and your sweet family will be in our prayers, especially tomorrow. (sorry we are not able to attend). One of the great things about being believers in Jesus Christ is that we don't have to say good bye, but see you later, face to face. That's hope, peace, joy, mercy, and grace all because of love on the Cross. Love you guys !!!!! Wayne and Cathy Mauldin

So crushed to learn about your dads passing. It overwhelms me to feel your pain. Life has its share of unpredictables, throwing us into situations that we are not always prepared for. I first met your dad in 1978. He always had a smile on his face and always said something to make me laugh. I will miss him. My prayers and heartfelt condolences go out to all of you at this time of tragedy. Yvonne (Seaquist) Newsome

When I was a teenager Joe Tschida was one of my best friends. I remember around Christmas one year being a bit depressed and how hanging around the Tschida house really raised my spirits, the warmth and love of that boisterous household helmed by Shirley and Bill.My funniest memory of Bill is how, when I had been unceremoniously dumped by a girlfriend (and was, again, a bit depressed) he came up to me, put his hand on my shoulder, and - in a very fatherly manner - said "On the bright side, John, you're probably lucky at cards!" I still laugh at that. A very funny, very good man.My love to Shirley and the entire Tschida family.

I want to say it is not fair that I lost my dad this way and if he were here he would say "Fair is something that comes around once a year and has rides". He was a great story teller and his wisdom will live on in the re-telling of his stories. I will miss him always.
