Oh Jesus, blest Redeemer, sent from the heart of God, hold us who wait before Thee near to the heart of God. Momma, this is so very hard for me. We became so close these last 6 years. I know in my heart that you are at peace now and this is what you were praying for to be with Jesus. You used to thank me for caring for you, but I say Thank You for being my mother and giving me the opportunity to spend our time together. You have helped me through my pain and sorrow these last few years. I couldn't have done it without you. I will miss and love you forever. You are beautiful..... Your daughter, Barbara

This is supposed to be from all four of us. Do not know why it left my husband Steve off. But it is from him too.. He loved her too.

My dearest sweetest Grandmama, The moment that your died, my heart was ton in two, one side filled with heartache, the other died with you. I often lie awake at night, when the world is fast asleep, and take a walk down memory lane, with tears upon my cheeks. Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday, but missing you is heartache that will never go away. I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain. Until the joyous day arrives, that we will meet again. Found this poem and it was perfect for how I feel about you. You have been the greatest influence in my life. You have been a Grandmother, Mom and the greatest best friend and confidant to have in my life. You are the most Christian person I know. You love your Lord and he loved you. He blessed the Lang and Harmon Family with the most wonderful woman. We will all miss you, miss hearing your voice and your soft touch and kisses. But we have the comfort of knowing that one day we will see you again. And we will all fly with the Angels. I know that Brandi Nichole, Doug, Michael, Bill and Grandpa are all glad to see you. Give them kisses and hugs from us and a extra one to my little girl. I have so much to say but will say them in my prayers. I love you Grandmama, and I will miss you more than you know. My heart is breaking knowing I won't hear your voice when I call but I hear it in my heart and feel you there as well. God has the greatest Angel of all with you. Enjoy Heaven Grandmama, its where you have wanted to be for so long. Glad you are not in pain anymore and I know you are smiling and happy to be with your Lord. Until the Lord calls me home to Heaven to see you. Love you so much my sweet Grandmama. Always, your granddaughter, Rhonda.

My Dearest Grandma.....how do I even begin to say what a blessing you were to me and our family. How do I put into words the impact you've had on me throughout my entire life? The love you showed others, your endless prayers for us all and your example of being a beautiful Christian woman gives me comfort knowing that you are at peace now, resting in the loving arms of Christ. I will always remember our talks and the things you taught me. Missing you will be the hardest thing to accept. I will miss your smile, your hand in mine as we kissed goodbye each visit and the sound of your voice. Thank you for all you've done. Thank you for setting such an amazing example of what being selfless is all about and thank you for being my grandma. I love you with all my heart, until we meet again, and we will....God Bless You xoxox

LOTS OF LOVE, MOM -- there isn't anyone that I know of that could ever fill your shoes - but at least there are many who could follow the path of life you so honorably exhibited - sadly, few will.
