It's truly sad to lose Dick! I remember those times I visited Dick, Mary, Rich, Tammy, Kathy and Karen during those wonderful years when Wevica (Grandmother) and the family was all centered in Batavia. Dick once (when I was 11, more or less) drove me in the winter to see a "girlfriend" from school way, way out in the country, but Dick thought it couldn't be far, but he froze his tail off pattering way out on those gravel roads to drop me off; later, returned in the car this time ;) Kind and approachable, Dick didn't have much interest in girls it seemed until he met Mary at the Fox Valley Restaurant in Geneva; then, he became their best customer. We remember him buying an expensive vacuum because Mary loved it, paying what four might cost, but later I realized he'd never have done that except he'd do anything at all for Mary - and Mary loved that Vacuum!!! It sure brings tears just to think about all those years and the quality of our family then and now! Dennis Hassler, Gold Canyon, AZ
