We think of Flo and Sam with great warmth, they were spiritual parents as well as friends and leaders in a very crucial and important time in our lives. They will be forever in our hearts and minds. They will be missed by so many , I believe they are now seeing how many they did touch in this lifetime and that they are being richly rewarded for eternity.

Flo's life was a personal encouragement to many people. Her smile, her "motherly advice" blessed a lot of young men and women during the ministry days of Agape. She is missed, but she is in her Father's presence and with her sweet husband, Sam. I thank God for Flo and Sam and having them as friends in my life. Charles Brown

What an incredibly Godly woman and mentor in our lives and the lives of our whole family. Sam and Flo were such influences in our lives in our earlier years of marriage and ministry and were raising four young sons. Can't imagine how different our lives would have been without them there and loving us like they always did, unconditionally. We loved to go to Flo and Sam to be fed spiritually and physically. Flo was a great cook and always given to hospitality. They have always stayed in our hearts and prayers all these years, some 45 now and we are grateful. Blessings, hugs & love to all of you, Charlie and Lynne Brown
