Dear Clayton and Family,So sorry to learn of your loss. Mrs. Bishop was such a lovely lady and brought smiles to so many of us. She was sitting with my niece Michelle and me when I introduced Michelle to theatre by taking her to see God Spell about 35 years ago. What a fun time we had. I'll always remember her kind and loving manner and that smile of hers.God Bless,Judy Carter

Barbara shared a photo to the Tribute Wall album.

Mom loved chocolate and bright and sparkly things. She loved holidays when the families could get together and there would be lots of food and laughter, and yes, even more chocolate. Here's one Christmas photo from 2011 with 3 Elizabeths: Mom and her bookend grandchildren Elizabeth and Sasha (Elizabeth).
