Pat was my "big" sister. The best memory I remember was, we would always spend several weeks during the summer when we were young with our Aunt, Uncle and cousins in Augusta, GA. Being a lot younger my other sister, Nell, and my cousins Diane and Susan would always tell me scary stories. At night I would be scare to go to sleep and be homesick, but my big sis would always comfort me and let me sleep with her so I would not be scared. I love my big sis and I will greatly miss her and her comforting words. I love you Pat. You, Mom and Dad look over Nell and me, we need your love and comfort through our lives here on earth.

Pat was my cousin. I remember visiting Aunt Mary, Uncle Grady and Pat, Nell and Jeannie with my sister and brother, Susan and Roger. We would spend the night on "pallets" as we said then , on the floor and spend the night giggling while our parents played Canasta. We thought we were really "big kids" when we were allowed to walk to our grandparents house which was nearby. Dear Pat, you are missed and our hearts will always keep your memory close. So hard to believe and deal with. Love, Diane

Pat and I had always been friendly neighbors, but we had been on our way to becoming good friends since she was laid up with a broken leg. We had more time to visit and plan for "fun times" to come once she was healed. I'm sure that she is now paving the way for me and many others who called her "friend." I will miss her and pray that Our Lord will grant her eternal rest. My prayers are also with you, her family, for blessings of peace in these difficult days. Rita Rosenquist
