Peggy Yandell lit a candle in honor of Christina.

I Remember the first time Leon met Christina. She had turned down everyone who had asked her to dance so I bet Leon that he couldn't get her to dance with him and he bet that he could. Well Leon won the bet plus 33 years way to go Leon. Love at first site and love till death do us part , well you and I both did this and it's a love and an emptiness that takes time to heal God loves you and I do too

I will hold you close to my heart each and everyday mommy. You were an AMAZING mother, wife, grandmother and human being. I'm grateful for the years I did get with you. You taught me and my sister so much. The grandkids miss you so much and don't quite understand what is happening, but once they get a little bit older, I will explain it better. I'm so glad you are free of your constant burdens, you were a hard working woman and you deserved your endless break. I will love you to the end of time mom, and when it's my time to leave this world, I will be heading for your arms for that last hug I wish I could have.

Joel Huffman sent a virtual gift in honor of Christina.

I will always remember Christina remembering and asking me if I remembered when I was a teenager and her tossing fried green tomatoes and eggplant across the kitchen and me catching them with my mouth. As my mom would be Scolding Leon, Christina, and I.
