So sorry to hear about Catherine. We worked together for several years at Bolger House. She was a faithful and invested counselor. She was the real deal! She loved getting together with her grandchildren--I remember her taking them to the motel so they could swim and feel like they were on vacation. She spoke often of her son, and her brothers and sisters. She loved her grandmother. Every Thanksgiving Catherine would bring poinsettias to all the volunteers that worked at the Bolger House Thanksgiving breakfast. When she left to go to Las Vegas we continued to do that for her. It just felt like the right thing to do. She was a decent person who made a difference!! I hope that someone in her family takes Ebony . She really loved her. I am very sorry for your loss.
