I am so saddend to learn of Janie's passing. We enjoyed a wonderful correspondence about her Evans and Underwod families; especially the early ones that were from Champaign County, Ohio and buried in North Lewisburg. I was hoping to re-connect with her when I learned she had passed away. I will be keeping Janie in my thoughts and also her family. She was a wonderful lady who had so much to share with others, including with me. Sincerely, Linda Jean Limes Ellis, Lyndhurst, Ohio

I met Jane at a computer security forum where she was active and we became friends about 10 years ago. She disappeared after early 2012 and I've tried to find her for quite awhile. Sadly, today I succeeded. Rest in peace, Jane. My sincere condolences to your family and friends. Joyce

You're very welcome, Christy.

Hi, Christy. LandzDown is a small forum but Janie was a member there. The LandzDown Team had all spent time with her at the old Lavasoft forums.

Thank you Joyce. I didn't know how to let the security world know of moms passing. Glad you found her tribute page and thank you for posting.

It was good to see your post at DSLR last night and to know you found the thread, Christy. Several folks have replied already and I expect more will. No doubt your mom would be very proud of you.

Oh wow. I had no idea Joyce! I bet I have some pictures of her with her MVP security crew with me now.

(from France) As a member of the "MS-MVP Security family", I only met Janie on the Internet (including on my French security forum). I appreciated her a lot. We exchanged many messages... she even suggested to help me find members of my family in the States. I planned to meet Janie in Seattle in 2008 but she stopped going there (Microsoft's HQs). RIP Janie. Gérard aka ipI_001

Christy, please find notes from me below with links to pages of additional tributes from members of the computer security community.

It was through Joyce's discovery that the "security community" learned about Janie's passing. In addition to public forums, there are also tributes to Janie in private forums, including a Microsoft MVP location. Janie was a heroine and role model not only to myself but so many others in our community. Corrine

I first met Janie on a genealogy message board back about 2001 or 2002. She was looking for information about her Ault family history. I knew immediately she was related to me through my Alt family line. I remember she didn't think it could be the same family because her family spelled it Ault and mine Alt. I had to convince her it was originally Alt and some where along the line, her family changed it to Ault. We discovered we were actually double cousins because Alt brothers married Drew sisters. We exchanged many e-mails about genealogy, our families and our lives. I felt such a strong kinship with Janie and really bonded with her. Then she became involved in fighting computer viruses, malware and became a Microsoft MVP. In 2004 she came to Seattle to attend a Microsoft Seminar and we met at downtown hotel. My husband and I took her to dinner at a local seafood place on the waterfront and we had a nice visit. Something like two years later Janie again came to a Microsoft Seminar, this time she was staying at a hotel near Redmond, WA. Again my husband and I met Janie for a brief visit at her hotel. I cherish the memories of my visits with her and I wish we could have spent more time together.

I knew Janie (Jane) in elementary school, middle school and high school. She was a very loving and caring person at a very young age. She was accepting and devoted to making everyone she came into contact with feel important. She had the BEST slumber parties..... :) I am sorry for your loss and ask for peace in your hearts for your beloved Jane.

Hi, Christy. I actually discovered a link I'd saved years ago to your mom's membership page at Find-A-Grave and read the sad news there. Google led me here. I posted about her passing at DSLR: <https://www.dslreports.com/forum/r30641248-CalamityJane-died-December-25-2015>. You'll find kind words from many folks who held your mother in high regard if you look there. Again, I'm so sorry for your loss. There are additional heartfelt condolences here: <http://www.landzdown.com/forever-in-our-hearts/calamityjane-gone-but-not-forgotten/>. You can post at DSLR without becoming a member if you wish to comment. As far as I know, only members can post at LandzDown.
