One day Don and I were chatting about my new hobby of running, and he shared his past success in that sport. He asked me what my goal was and I told him to make a Boston cut and he told me in no uncertain terms that I should be looking at New York City Marathon instead and shared his experience there. Since then, I have found out the cut times for New York are faster and Don you were right! I have a new goal now thanks to you. As a neighbor and friend Don was the best, always friendly and helpful. My husband and I are very saddened by the loss will miss and think of him often. Our love and prayers to Ellen and their beautiful family. Nova
