I could choose a million memories to share. But, the one that still makes me laugh is when Joey saw William for the first time the dr asked if he wanted to cut the cord. Joey walked around the entire bed, back to the same spot before grabbing the scissors. He was just so nervous.

Joey was the youngest of the family and the biggest pain in the ass! But you couldn't get mad at him because he had this charm about him that melted your heart like butter! I will miss him so much but I know that he is with the Lord and is with my two other brothers fishing with Pops! I want to thank Mr. Klinker and Mrs. Klinker for being there for him always! ❤️
