"The song is ended but the melody lingers on..." My Papa Joe was a great man, who lived life to the fullest. His strength and sense of humor will always be remembered. He touched many lives in his many years. I will miss him very much. I remember him taking me and my sister when we were little to see the airplanes at the air shows. He had the best stories that would keep me entertained for hours. He is now dancing to his favorite tunes with my Grandma Helen in paradise. You are forever in my heart. Love, Elizabeth

My Papa Joe always had the best sense of humor. He would always tell me to forget about all the bad stuff in life and concentrate on all the good. I always loved taking his comb out of his shirt pocket and combing his hair.
