I attended Evans High School with Rick and we graduated in 1973. I had several classes with Rick and he was the nicest guy on campus. He was a gentleman around the girls and always stood out as a "great guy" you would want to take home to meet your parents. I stopped by his auto shop about 2 years ago just to say "hi" since I pass it on the way to help my elderly parents nearby once a month.....and found the same sweet, nice, well-mannered guy. I've been married 40 years to a 1972 graduate. I know your loss must be great. I always knew he would make a great family man for some lucky girl one day. If you would like for me to share some funny stories about him in high school, feel free to contact me. Such a sad loss to be gone so young in life. My deepest heartfelt sympathy to the whole family. He will be dearly missed."THE ROSE STILL GROWS BEYOND THE WALL"
Near a shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.
As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall,
Through which there shone a beam of light.
Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear or pride,
It followed the light through the crevice's length,
And unfolded itself on the other side.
The light, the dew, the broadening view
Were found the same as they were before;
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.
Shall claim of death cause us to grieve,
And make our courage faint or fail? Nay!
Let us faith and hope receive:
The rose still grows beyond the wall.
Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will for evermore.
