Gary, I will always be grateful to you and your bride Gidget for all of your selfless efforts that were poured into my daughters. You were there for my daughter Bethany during a difficult time in her life, unsure and confused, you and Gidget helped guide her. My daughter Paisley, was also Blessed by your giving heart. Thank you. Joe

Although I never really got to know Gary all that well, I know by the love shown by everyone that he was an incredible Son, Brother, Husband and Father. He will be greatly missed and we grieve with all the family his passing, but we also rejoice with them for his position with his Heavenly Father!

Gary was such a sweetheart. He never failed to tell my Mother, his Aunt Odessa, how much he loved her. Just two weeks ago he told her that he really wanted to be able to come back to NC to see her again. That meant the world to her. They had a special place in each other's heart. She was heartbroken when he passed but knows in her heart that he is now in Heaven with our dear Lord. Gary, you will be missed but never forgotten. Glenda

Gary is the best little brother in the entire world. We had a special relationship, it was one of laughter and jokes at one another's expense. But there was never a doubt of the love we had for one another. Gary is truly one of a kind and as one of my girls on my volleyball team said to me on Friday he is now my guardian angel. Gary also has the most beautiful and loyal wife a man could ever want. She is beyond amazing and I hope she knows how much I love and respect her. As for his beautiful daughter Ciara, well she is her daddy's girl. She has her momma's beauty but her daddy's personality. When I look at her I see Gary. He is in heaven with our heavenly Father now but he will forever be in my heart. In the time you were here on his way earth you touched so many people's lives in so many ways. What a legacy you leave. I love you Gary Raymond Browder and I will see you again someday.

Gary wasn't crazy about diagramming sentences or finding beauty in Shakespeare's pieces, but he was committed. He worked hard and tackled every assignment he had to do and every speech he had to deliver. I think much of his zeal was to impress that cute young girl who would soon become his wife. I am so proud to have re-connected with Gary and Gidget just a few months ago. I'm grateful that I had a chance to hug him and tell him I love him. "Good" is such an overused word, but that is what Gary was...a good, good man. What a joy it is to know that he sits with the Father now and is free from pain. Enjoy your crown.

I was fortunate enough to teach Ciara in 2014, there, I met Mr. Gary. Full of joy and life, he and Ms. Gidget accepted me with open arms. I remember when his battle first began, and it was apparent how strong he was. I am so grateful to a friend of this loving family. My prayers are with you, Ms. Gidget and Cici. I love you both. Sincerely, Micaella Glenn

Mark Jeter sent a virtual gift in honor of Gary.

I am honored to have known Gary Browder, to have had him as a part of my family, to have had him as a ministry partner, to have had him as a loyal and loving Friend. Gary was one of the most unique personalities that you could ever met, but it was his uniqueness that made him the lovable and caring man that he was. He brought life and excitement to everything that he did. There was always unpredictability and surprise (often shock) when Gary was involved in anything. But there was also always purpose and love behind those things as well. Gary lived life to the fullest and squeezed every ounce of life out of his life when it could have been so easy to give up. But that is not the man he was . . . HE NEVER GAVE UP!! He fought to the very end with purpose and love in that as well. He loved my baby sister with everything that he had, with him there has never been a greater example of how a husband should love and cherish his wife. I thank him for that. He cherished his baby girl, his miracle child. He made every moment count and created wonderful memories that will last a lifetime for her. Today my heart is heavy with a big Gary shaped void in it. But healing will come, because we serve the God who heals. Gary is evidence of that as well. Thank you my God for loving Gary enough to stop the pain, the hurt and discouragement of him not being able to live life as he loved to live life. Thank you that this past week you gently wrapped Your mighty arms around my dear friend and carried him to "The Party" as he referred to heaven so often. Gary I miss you terribly, but I also know that I will see you again and that makes heaven that much sweeter. I love you my dear friend.
