So sorry to find this out. She was my favorite teacher at Van Sciver, in the late 70's. She saw i was struggling and talked with my mom about tutoring me. It happened at my home a couple of times, and at hers. I remember she was called, The Sneezing Sargent, cause you could hear her sneeze at the opposite end of the 'open space' from where her classroom was. Continue to RIP Mrs Sargenti. 😞

My boys were so lucky to have Mrs. Sargenti as their teacher. She was such a positive influence not only scholastically but emotionally .We were just reminiscing about her last weekend. Some fifteen plus years later and her influence is still felt, a remarkable teacher and person. We wish you peace and comfort in all your memories. The Goleman family.

I am truly sorry for your loss. She was a tough teacher, only because she saw the best in all her students and wanted them to see it too. She was well respected, and will be greatly missed.
