Hi Dad. Happy Thanksgiving to you and Mommy. I miss u guys every day. Thank u for the visit you two gave me. I came outside to sit on my porch and there was a big beautiful hawk rite there sitting in the tree. I never seen one so close. It was amazing. Of course, I went to take a picture and it flew away. Then 2 beautiful yellow butterflies flew by. I know it was the both of u. I know u watch over us and visit. Love you all. Until we are all together again. Jeanie

You are and always will be, hands down, the best Poppy in the entire world! You filled our childhood with the absolute best of times and memories we will never forget! Everywhere you went you were the life of the party and always the one making everyone laugh! The world will not be the same without you! I know you are in a better place now but I will forever miss you! Thanks for being the best poppy, until we meet again. I love and miss you so much!

"Poppy", that word growing up meant the world to me. All my life I associated your name with fun, laughter, adventure and love; all in your own zany and wonderful way. There is a special place in my heart for the times we shared together, and I am thankful I have so many to cherish. We will always miss you. Though your departure was unexpected, you lived your life to the full, any other way was just not your style. The family will remember all the love you given us and joy you placed in our lives, we thank you for it. Love you forever.

Dad you will truly be missed. I love you very much. You are a great Dad. You had a great sense of humor and loved a good time. No monkey teeth in heaven (haha). You made me laugh. No more suffering, you are at home. Give my love, hugs and kisses to Chuck and Marge for me. I know you all are our Angels watching over us. I'm jealous you are having Chucks meatballs and sause. Until we meet again, I love and miss you all. You ate forever in my heart. Your Loving daughter Jeanie
