Cynthia "Cindy" L. Caruso

AUG 22, 1958 - JUN 24, 2020

Cindy moved to Apopka with her parents as an infant. She went to work in the plant nursery starting at age 13. In 1982 the family built their own greenhouses and Cindy managed the nursery until 1998. She is remembered and will be dearly missed by her partner, Rob Marsh; sons, Leonard (Connie) Caruso of Starke, FL, Christopher D. (Sharon) Caruso of Deltona, FL, and Samuel A. Caruso of Orlando; daughters, Jeannie Caruso of Bolivia, NC and Tina R. Caruso of Eustis, FL; grandchildren, Kyler Caruso, Stephanie Caruso, Dylan Anderson, Jolene Mopin, Bradley Caruso, Breanna Caruso, David Caruso, Spencer Caruso, Jacalyn Earwood, Sam Alan Caruso and Janessa Melusky; great grandchildren, McCoy Caruso-Powell and Denim Creed-Powell; brothers, Gary Neely of Apopka, FL and Johnny (Misty) Neely of Inverness, FL; sisters, Bonnie (Martin) Bishop of Apopka, Wanda Williams of Altamonte Springs, FL, Rosy (Larry) Turnage of Longwood, FL and Becky (Glen) Hanner of McEwen, TN; as well as many nieces and nephews.

You will be forever missed Aunt Cindy! You were truly one of the sweetest, soft spoken, and kind hearted human beings I've ever known. I loved when you got a good giggle and loved that when my dad needed you, you were always there. I know my dad will miss you dearly. Our hearts break for your Children, Grandchildren, Rob, Siblings and everyone that loved you. I'm thankful for the Thanksgiving family gathering we had and the happiest memories we will forever remember being all together that day. The earth has lost an amazing and beautiful woman, but heaven has gained a sweet angel. We will see you again! Love, The Bergum Family and Uncle Gary
