Uncle, I will forever miss you. I had great time growing up with you and auntie and cousin Jimmy Lou who used to take me out to play ball when I was like 7 ,8 and to hear you play your piano was beautiful. My mom loved going to your house and my dad, God rest his soul, you would probably play for us. You know my mom, she would cry because she loved to hear you play and all the good times. God, put your arms around my Uncle. Show him the way home until we meet again sending all my love too Heaven XOXOXO XOXOXO xoxoxo So sorry too my auntie Dot and my cousin ❤️ My heart ❤️ goes out to you all. I remember how happy he was to play the Organ for me whenever we went over and I asked him to play. And also how receiving of us and quite amiable with my friend Douglas and I. Always loved to visit his beautiful home and gardens, and when he also let Nicky drive his convertible and we went for a ride. We were all so happy. And also how he always accepted my son Robert as his son-in-law and how much he enjoyed his life in Florida. We will surely miss him a lot. Sorry for your loss and also ours.
