To the Payne family. This is a sad time for me also because Rose was like a second mom to me. She inspired me to move forward with my life when I was a young lady. Rose let me know my worth as a woman and told me that I could overcome any boundaries to make my life better for me and my children. Rose (mom) gave me support, love and wisdom. She gave me her strong wings to fly on when my wings were broken. Now she is resting because her work is done. Love always Michelle
