My husband Adam and I have been very long-term friends with Carol's oldest son Allan and his wife, Michelle, as well as their 3 children. There is never a dull moment and always a holiday, or family occasion where we would all be gathered together. I can recall many good times, as well as sweet messages from Carol when things were not so great. Most of all...I remember one such fun memory at her house, having a wonderful time all of us spending the afternoon in her pool, along with an exciting event, and a very nice bar-b-que. A good time was especially had by us all!! There are so many happy memories, and an especially funny one involving our son Howie, Carol, and meatballs! We will choose to keep those kind of memories close at heart! We are so very sorry to everyone who knew and loved her! We will keep everyone close in prayer! She will most definitely be missed by us!
