Gonna miss our talks about the military, sharing with you about my grandsons service. Watching you playing with your pups. And the love for your adorning wife. Was such a pleasure knowing and loving you. ❤️

Joey was a teammate on the 1963 Panther Football Team. He was a dedicated player and a worked diligently to perform at the higher level. We were good friends, even though we hadn't seen each other since then, we were still connected as brother, as are our other team mates on the 1963 team. By his passing, the Panther Nation has lost one of our ambassadors that brought honor to our Beloved Blue and Gold. 💙💛 May our Heavenly Father welcome Joey home and give peace and comfort to his family in knowing that he is reunited with his son, Joseph Jay, in the Heavenly Kingdom where they will be walking the streets of Gold with their Jesus. 💙❤️✝️😊🙏, Rabun Reynolds
