Sherman was my neighbor for a few years when I lived in the Palm Gardens in Tavares FL, we hung out almost every day! he was a fun guy to be around, he definitely knew how to party & loved playing dominoes with everyone around. He would always make jokes and was a true hippy at heart!!! We last hung out on October 21st 2022, he came to my father in laws birthday & that was a very fun time together! This is the only picture I have of him from last year, he was enjoying himself a nice cold beer & good food that day & that's how I want to forever remember him because he loved hanging out with everyone!! We love & miss you already man, rest easy & continue to party hard up there!! ❤️ Much love from Mc-Kenzie Kanczurzewski-Allen & Demontay Allen 🙏🙏

I remember when I first met Sherman, I had just gotten back home from traveling. He always had a new joke to tell me every time he saw me. I don't think I've ever heard him tell the same joke twice.... He will forever be missed. I only wish I had the chance to say goodbye... He was like a dad to me. I love ya old man and maybe one day I will see you again on the rainbow 🌈 bridge. Until then, be good or be good at it.
