On October 21, 2010 dear Lois got her wish...she is now in the arms of her beloved husband! What a wonderful woman Lois was, soft of heart, soft of voice and filled with love...especially her love of chocolate!!! Never again will indulge in my chocolate treats that I will not think of Lois. Also, I would love to thank Mr. and Mrs. Utterback for their beautiful daughter Jill...truly one of the loves of my life...unconditional friendship and fantastic memories of raising our children together! My prayers go to the entire family...84 wonderful years of memories to keep your hearts filled and warm.

I have very fond, childhood memories of Aunt Lois and Uncle "Winks" - especially at Snake Hill Farm. If I remember correctly, Aunt Lois was always the quiet one. You will be missed and remembered well.##imported-begin##Joe Utterback##imported-end##

Hello Everyone, I just wanted to let you all know that I am with you in spirit this week. I feel so privileged to have known Winsky and Lodi Jo the way that I did. I will always cherish memories of times spent in the little house in Altoona (with the Charlie Brown Christmas tree. . . meeting Gail, George and Sarah there for the first time. . .meeting Judy, Jeff, and Jennifer (maybe Justin) there for the first time. . .). . .all the family times I was part of after that. . .the trailer and Sugar dog. . .but above all Lodi's laugh and gentle spirit remain in my heart. . .the way she loved me as if I were one of hers. . .what a sweet lady. . .after Winsky died I continued to write to her and visit when I could. . .I was at her Titusville place several times and the last time my mom visited along with me. . .Lodi loved to brag about you all. . .I so loved her heart. . .I love that she sang to you all. . .that your whole family sang together. . .and I know you will keep singing in honor of both of your parents. . .I'll be listening for the songs of all of your hearts this week. . .at long last Lodi Jo is with her Winks. . .(I wonder if they have the Benny Hill show in heaven) Love, Lantana##imported-begin##Lalaine Ortlieb##imported-end##

I will always remember your smile and how welcome you made me feel when I would come over and spend the night with Jill. I remember the little talks that you would have with Jill and I. And I'll never forget Mr. Utterback's talk to me when he was driving Jill and I to the church on Jill's wedding day. You are both together now in heaven forever. True love. My prayers are with all of you.##imported-begin##Daire Wilson and Family##imported-end##

My Aunt Lois and I always had the best of times together. She always treated me, not only as a niece, but also a good friend. Her calm, quiet voice, her laughter, just getting to be with her made my life much happier. I will always treasure our relationship and her love for me and hold it close to my heart. My love and prayers to my precious Aunt and to all of the family Many Blessings; Adrienne had several occasions to be with Aunt Lois in El Reno, Oklahoma when they were visiting Margaret and Emerson. She loved a joke and I remember her voice being so soft, her laughter so contagious and her smile would light up a room. She was indeed a wonderful person whom I admired very much. To the entire Utterback family, We just want to say how sorry we were to hear of your mother's passing. My childhood experience at the Utterback home was wonderful as was all of our memories of St. Mark's School. It has been wonderful to stay friends all these years. Even at a young age, I just couldn't get over how your parents didn't seem to mind "the girls" staying over on a Friday night, even though they already had a house full including your grandmother! And I remember one time your mother had just come home from the hospital with one of you only a few weeks before. We had a lot of laughs, getting scared at watching the Twilight Zone, and lots of singing. Jody and Jan, remember "Harbour Lights", and your mom even joined in. We admired your mother's strength; suffering so many years with scoliosis, but always laughing at a good joke (especially with you, Jim Bottcher), and never complaining. Jim and I were so happy to have spent a few days with her at Jody and Jim's in '06. God Bless you all, Ellen and Jim Mackenzie##imported-begin## Jim and Ellen Mackenzie##imported-end##
