As I opened my email to read about Aunt Claribel's passing I had several memories run through my mind. One was of a picture of she and I when I was just a few weeks old. Then, there was us visiting she and Uncle Gordon when my children were young in Miami. I have two very special paintings that I keep on the wall in my home that reminds me of both her and Uncle Gordon. My late mom, Mildred Yates always talked to her through the years. She was always in my heart and my thoughts even though I did not speak to her half as much as I should have. Sadness envelopes my heart as I write this. Another piece of my early years is gone. My heart goes out to you Uncle Gordon and I hope you can find some peace through all of this. I love you Aunt Claribel.##imported-begin##Grace Yates Parkins##imported-end##

Dear Gordon: We're sorry to hear of the passing of your dear wife and companion, Claribel. Our Prayers are for you, that you will find strength in God, the giver of life. We pray you will find comfort in the years He has given you together and you will feel the closeness of his abiding love. While life is tenuous and unpredictable, God has given you many great years of love, companionship, and a variety of experiences you shared together. We know your heart is heavy with the void she has left. Our prayer is, you will remember the joys you brought each other, the friends in your lives, the experiences you shared together, in the years God had given you in this life. I will always cherish the times I spent at your house we talked about happenings, in each of our lives. We pray God will grant you a peace in your heart for all the joys and experiences you had together. We know you will miss Claribel, as we will too. We are confident you know she is in a better place, without pain, sickness, sorrow, and is not experiencing any of the difficulties deteriorating health brings as you aged together. While you both did not have opportunities to know my wife, Lois, she has become a friend through the many pictures you shared of Claribel at the Tavares 'Y'. May God be felt in your life, as a companion, that will help to fill the void Claribel has left in her passing. We pray our friendship will continue to grow and we will have opportunities to see you as we spend winters God grants us. In Christian Love and Friendship, Clarence & Lois Miller, 257 Olive Drive, Tavares, FL 32778-3350, and 2555 Eden Road, Leslie, MI 49251-9625.##imported-begin##Clarence & Lois Miller##imported-end##
