Wyona D. Cazer

DEC 8, 1917 - JUN 7, 2011

Wyona Davis Cazer died June 7, 2011 in Altoona, Florida. Born in Erie, Pennsylvania on December 8, 1917 she was raised in Wesleyville, Pennsylvania with her sister Gipsy. She attended Wesleyville grade and high schools. After graduating she married and had three daughters. Wyona worked briefly as a dental assistant but preferred to be a homemaker and mother. Her passions were cooking, baking, sewing and writing plays, skits, poems and traveling. Wyona moved to Deltona in 1969 because she loved the “Sunshine State” and wanted to be where it was warm. She lived in Deltona for 12 years and eventually moved to Eustis where she lived in Country Club Manor from 1981 to 2005. For the past six years she resided at Lakeview Terrace Retirement Community with her husband of 20 years Marval Cazer. Wyona and Marval traveled the world after their marriage in 1991 seeing numerous countries abroad. Wyona was a charismatic, entertaining and humorous woman. She loved to be the center of attention. Her warm heart, kind gestures, and knack for lightening up the mood would show thru in every action she took. Wyona was survived by her husband Marval Cazer, her daughters Peggy Wehrle of Saegertown, Pennsylvania and Sue Connell of Lake Helen, Florida. Wyona is also survived by her stepdaughter Nancy Grace of Baltimore, Maryland and her stepson James Cazer of Warsaw, Virginia. She had nine grandchildren, Joshua Wehrle, Ashleigh Smith, JC Connell, Rylee Connell, Taylor Connell, Kevin & Matthew Grace, Amber & Tyler Cazer. Wyona also had three great grandchildren in Pennsylvania
