Another year has come without my mother being with us. Today would have been her birthday and I need her so much now to give me words of wisdom to help me with the cancer I am fighting. I love and miss you so much. Your great grandson and your grandson would have loved you so much

I just finished singing happy birthday to my grandson Cooper. He turned 4 today so I know its been 4 years since I lost my mother. Mom would have just loved him to no end. He is a cuddle bug and also loves to play outside blowing bubbles and creating great works of art on the sidewalk with chalk. I see much of my mom's creative gifts in him. I miss you mom.
