Chuck and my mom used to take me fishing as a little girl. He taught me how to bait a hook, cast, clean and cook the fish in corn meal and peanut oil. We spent many Saturdays in Melbourne on the causeway fishing. I remember the day I caught a fish and I was so excited I let go of my new little pole and over the bridge it went.... I am thankful for those memories as they were my mom's most favorite times, fishing in the river, in fact her ashes are spread in that very river that we used to fish. Peace be with you now Chuck.
