“ Linda and I grew up together on a back road in Orwell, VT. Friends at the local one room school, then on 'to town' for junior high and then high school. Linda was a gentle spirit, one who knew the meaning of loyalty and friendship. Marriage and children took us to different places. I am delighted that we connected during the past several years via Face Book and email. I will miss her.

“ My deepest condolences for Connie and Cindy, and the rest of the siblings and family for the passing of their dear, loving mother, Linda J. Nimon. The loving bond Linda had for Connie and Cindy was unparalleled, and not just as the girls were young and growing up, but continued through to their adulthood. Linda loved all of her siblings, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and the spouses of Connie and Cindy. In 2007, I had the honor of meeting Linda Nimon through her daughter Connie. Quickly, I grew to cherish the sweet, caring ways Linda displayed to me. Over the years, I had the wonderful opportunity to spend more time with Connie, and her loving mother Linda, building a warming friendship. I will fondly remember the stories Linda shared, her laugh and her zest for life, as well as her undying faith of her Savior. Linda and I shared stories about Connie, Cindy, Vermont, Pennsylvania, puzzles, and our love of animals. We shared some wonderful conversations over yummy meals, and with Linda's big, caring heart, I was blessed to be called her friend and sometimes an extra family member. My heart aches with her loss; however, I know she is in the absolute best caring hands of the Lord and reunited with her loving Bob. I will miss Linda, and I pray that the Lord showers Connie and Cindy with blessings to ease their sadness and pain with the passing of their mother, Linda.

“ Rejoicing that my friend and sister in Christ is with her Heavenly Father; however, as a friend I already greatly miss you. The past years I have been blessed to truly get to know you and your kind, sweet and gentle spirit and your friendship I will always treasure. I have so many delightful and precious memories of our being in Sunday School, Bible Studies, luncheons and just hanging out together. We shared our love of Jesus and of nature, especially cats. Prayers for your family and friends who carry you in our hearts.
